

74 Pharmacopæia Pauperum; or,

Pil. Pectorales.

℞ Rad. Enul. Liquoritiæ pul. ʒj.

Pulv. Croci ʒij.

Balsam. Sulph. anis. q. s. ut f. Pil. Dos.
iiij. bis in die.

Pectoral Pills.

Take Elicampane Root powder'd 1 Ounce, Powder of Saffron 2 Drams, Balsam of Sulphur anisated a sufficient Quantity to make into a Mass for Pills, of which 3 is a Dose twice in a Day.

These are given in ordinary Coughs in consumptive Habits, and in all Distempers of the Breast. They are both cordial and detergent, whereby they not only raise the Spirits, but cleanse the Vessels, promote Expectoration, and ease the Breath.